IFANZ Purpose:

- to promote the health and well-being of infants and young children and their mothers, in New Zealand and internationally, through the protection, promotion and support of optimal infant and young child feeding practices
- to provide education and information that is free of commercial influence, to enable informed decision-making about infant and young child feeding
- to support full implementation of the International Code of Marketing of Breastmilk Substitutes and subsequent relevant World Health Assembly Resolutions

International Baby Food Action Network

The Seven Principles of IBFAN:

- the right of infants everywhere to have the highest level of health
- the right of families, in particular women and children, to have enough nutritious food
- the right of women to breastfeed and to make informed choices about infant feeding
- the right of women to full support for successful breastfeeding and for sound infant feeding practices
- the right of all people to health services which meet basic needs
- the right of health workers and consumers to healthcare systems which are free of commercial pressures
- the right of people to organise in international solidarity to secure changes which protect and promote basic health
